15-Year NFL Veteran Dave Szott Joins Local Advisory Board

Perrineville, NJ - Trinity Financial, Sports & Entertainment Management Company, LLC, announced today that former Kansas City Chiefs and New York Jets Offensive Linesman Dave Szott has joined the company's advisory board.

"Dave Szott has a tremendous love for God and family. I've been privileged to know him and am truly honored to have him on board," said Peter Grandich, Managing Member of Trinity FSEM.

Grandich explained that the purpose of Trinity Financial Advisory Board is to provide guidance to the firm's unique niche clientele. Through their own life experiences, Christian advisory board members can help guide athletes and entertainers through many of the challenges that celebrity can often bring.

ABOUT DAVE SZOTT:

Raised in Clifton, New Jersey, Dave Szott starred at Penn State University before being drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1990. He received all-rookie honors from many and went on to play 11 years for the Chiefs. He then played for the Washington Redskins and finished his 15-year career with the New York Jets.

Dave is very active with Sports World Ministries [www.sportsworld.org] and The Fellowship of Christian Athletes [www.fcanj.org]. He is currently a New York Jets players' assistant and assistant offensive line coach.
